TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 15.

GENIUS.—The Saratoga correspondent of the New York Times tells this story: There is a new story affeat here, and unless Joe Miller has noticed it, it seems a fresh incident in human speculation. Lizzie A. and Gertie B., two of the most beautiful girls of the year, fixed their hopes on Henry D, a grand parti, from New York. Both the girls are stylish, handsome, and rich, and the favored swain was only hesitating in the words of the old song.

"How happy could I be with either. Were t other dear charmer away."

Both are girls of the period, and to that must be charged the story I am to tell. - One afternoon Miss Lizzie and the young gentleman walked through the park after an extended stroll, during which much love-making went on, and while passing through the halls of the Grand Union the lady suddenly tottered and fell fainting into the arms of her attendant. It was a bold stroke and victory for a moment seemed fastened there. Gertie soon heard of this, and her fertile mind grew tired with scheming. At last a smile grew upon her face. She owns the nicest pony phaeton in Saratoga, and the next day she invited the gentleman to ride. He accepted and met his fate. The well-trained horse was quietly going on his way, when suddenly the wheel came off, and the pretty Gertie lay fainting on the hard road. The terrified Henry lifted her in his arms and bore her to a convenient farm house. For two days she refused to recover from the shock. On the third day the remorseful Henry, who was constantly with her, could stand it no longer. He surrendered; she recovered, and soon there is to be a wedding in high life. Now comes the touch of nature. 'Miss Lizzie forgot her loss in admiration of the grand coup d'etat, and has already congratualated her rival upon her brilliant victory.

"The brooding place of sin and the nursery of death," is the striking appellation which the New York Sun bestows upon a certain district of that city.

LOT To the voters of the city and county of Al-exandria:—I propose to be a candidate for a sent in the next House of Delegates from the county of Alexandria, should I find it to be the wish of the people that I should represent them. As early as possible after the adjournment of the present Court, I intend to address the citizens of the city and county upon the questions vitally affecting their interests, which will be brought before the next General Assembly. CHARLES E. STUART.

THE BALTIMORE PARLOR QUEEN.

S. B. SEXTON'S

New Patented Self-Feeding Base-Burning
PARLOR FIRE PLACE STOVE. Mr. S. B. Sexton is the original inventor of the Illuminating Baltimore Fire Place Heaters.—His several succeeding patents have been improvements, until this last is the superior of them all. It excels all the popular Fire Place Stoves in beauty of finish, tasteful carving, and in heating several in the superior of them. ing power. It is the result of twenty-two years practical experience in inventing and manufacturing Fire Place Stoves, and combines all the improvements of our former Stoves, with additional improvements made this present season.

This Stove is a decided success. Several hundred of them were put up in dwellings during the latter part of the Fall and during the Winter, and we have received many testimonials giving them the highest praise for powerful heating capacity and economy in the consumption of fuel.

THE DINING ROOM QUEEN.-We have added a new Fire Place Stove to our list this senson. This Stove is suitable for dining rooms. It is very ornamental and would answer for parlors also. It has the convenience of a large oven, lors also. It has the convenience of a large oven, which can be used for warming plates, and heating irons, as well as baking and boiling.

We also manufacture the BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS, which are Top-Feeding and Self-Feeding Stove. They are beautifully finished and of great heating power.
